

George Lyssiotis

Born in 1969. After completing his studies in Economics, he worked for four years in London with the auditing firm Deloitte, obtaining the professional title of Chartered Accountant. He then worked as a Financial Manager in a large commercial company, while specializing in corporate finance and project management in financial institutions. In recent years he has worked as General Manager in private equity and financial services companies, while today he is the General Manager and one of the executive directors of SPA Financial Services Ltd.